

SCOTCH BONNET LONG DISTANCE RACE 2007

NOTICE OF RACE

Date: June 23rd and 24th, 2007

General

This is a 30 mile a day race from Wellers Bay, through Barcovan, out into Lake Ontario, around Scotch Bonnet Island and back again.

The boats will launch from Billy Bowman's campground on the shores of Wellers Bay.

Please email Amanda Carson at ag777can@yahoo.ca to pre-register. Registration will be open from 8:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, June 23rd.

Location

Billy Bowman's Campground is located at Box 98 , Consecon, K0K 1T0

Contact Information: (tel.) 613-392-4280; email b.bowman@sympatico.ca

Billy Bowman has both cabins and camping areas available. Please call Billy to reserve your sleeping accommodations as soon as possible. Tell Billy that you are with the sailing regatta and request a cabin/camping site close to the launch site.

Wellers Bay is about 2 hours East of Toronto or 1 hour West of Kingston on Highway 401, then about 1/2 hour south of the 401. Wellers Bay faces west to Lake Ontario, protected by a narrow sand bar that permits high winds with flat warm water.

- Get off 401 at exit 522 - Wooler's Road (one of the Trenton exit's)
- head south on Wooler's Road
- Right onto Highway 33 (Wooler's ends at 33)
- Enjoy the scenery, you cross Murray Canal (narrow bridge)
- Consecon is the closest town to the regatta site
- Right off Hwy 33 on County Road 29 and drive through Consecon
- Right onto Rd. 29A / Stinson Rd

- Right into Billy Bowman's Camp - careful or you'll be past the driveway before you see the sign

Cost
